CERTIFICATE NUMBER: 507105
EXPIRATION DATE: 10/31/2026

Dear Tara O'Neil:

As an active certificate holder you can download a PDF version of this letter with the dates you passed the exams and make sure you have accepted your digital badge which contains verified metadata that describes your qualifications and process required to earn them. By keeping your NCIDQ Certification in active status, you are entitled to these important benefits:

Distinguish Yourself with the NCIDQ Appellation!

- Show your clients and colleagues that you are NCIDQ Certified by using "NCIDQ" after your name, and by accepting your digital badge to use on your website, business cards, correspondence, marketing materials, and in the media - you've earned it by being knowledgeable and committed to the health, safety, and welfare of occupants of the spaces you design.

Promote and Verify Your Professional Certification

- Market yourself to clients using our NCIDQ Certified Interior Designers Directory.
- Verify the status of your NCIDQ Certification to clients, employers, or any regulatory board you wish - instantly!

Build, Support, and Protect a Strong Profession

- Become a part of the CIDQ community by submitting your name to serve as a volunteer on a committee such as those that help write or review exam questions.
- Help to ensure that the NCIDQ Examination remains the standard for the profession by supporting our practice analysis and research efforts to inform and educate decision-makers about the exam and the profession.

Accept and use your digital badge and share it with pride!

We are very grateful for your support, which enables us to keep the NCIDQ Examination current and protect the status of those like you, who have achieved this prestigious certification.
